

Section 8309 of the Streets & Highway Code defines VACATION as “The complete or partial abandonment or termination of the public right to use a street, highway, or public service easement.”

Applicability

The process of vacation or abandonment of public service easements or rights-of-way is governed by State and municipal codes that require that certain information and findings be considered before public easements/rights-of-way can be vacated to private use.

The following are examples of public rights-of-way that require formal action by the legislative body (whether created by map or separate instrument dedication):

- Easements – public utility, public service, storm & sanitary sewer, landscape tree planting, sidewalk, slope, light and air.
- Building Set-Back Lines – established by Final or Parcel Map
- Public Street Right-of-Way – dedicated either by easement or fee interest

The following are examples of easements and rights-of-way not subject to the public vacation process:

- Easements granted to public utilities by separate instrument in which the public has no interest.
- Easements granted between individual property owners.
- Easement rights owned by other public agencies such as Santa Clara Valley Water District, school districts, or regional park districts.

Categories of Street Vacation Process

The street vacation process can be separated into two categories, REGULAR and SUMMARY. Each process is specified by the Government Code, State of California, Streets & Highways Code, Part 5, Section 8100.

Specific statutory requirements are stated in this code which relate to the environmental clearance, public utility consent, review by other governmental agencies, public noticing, conduct of public hearings, and that the legislative body (City Council) make certain findings with regard to the easement or right-of-way.

REGULAR – The Regular process requires approximately 10 to 12 weeks between the acceptance of the vacation application and the final City Council hearing deciding the approval of the vacation. The street or easement may then be deemed vacated upon the recordation of the City Council resolution. If the City holds a fee interest in the property under the street or easement vacated, then it may take several months to negotiate the sale of the property.

SUMMARY – The Summary process can take as little as 6 weeks from the date of acceptance of the vacation application. Summary Vacations also require approval by the City Council.
